

ALTERNATIVE 1 - OPPORTUNITIES PLAN

The McCoy's Creek Visioning Plan aims to reduce flooding, restore ecosystem health, expand recreational opportunities along the creek, and connect creek-side neighborhoods to the water. The project proposes to use natural channel design to transform McCoy's creek from an environmental concern into a community asset, building a functional ecosystem that can adapt and sustain itself over time. In all images, the purple line depicts the alignment of the proposed Emerald Trail.